

WATERSHED BRIGADE

COMPLETE COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS AND HELP KEEP THE ENVIRONMENT LITTER-FREE!

Join the Watershed Brigade to earn community service credit while fighting litter and keeping our local watersheds and beaches clean.

Volunteers remove trash from trails, creeks, urban areas, rivers, and beaches, act as environmental stewards, and collect data used to help reduce pollution at its source.

Santa Barbara Channelkeeper is a registered 501c3 environmental nonprofit (EIN: 91-2151460) and is pleased to offer validated community service credits.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN GET STARTED:

Email Us: Reach out to Molly@sbck.org to sign up.

Pick a Location – Choose an area to clean up. You can pick up litter from anywhere – your neighborhood, a local park, a local trail, a creek bed, highway turnouts ... anywhere!
Join Channelkeeper's Watershed Brigade Facebook Group or Email us for location suggestions!

Grab a Clean-up Kit – Your Clean-Up Kit should include trash bags and latex safety gloves. Use your own or request a kit.

Read the SAFETY GUIDELINES & complete the Waiver / Exención.

Clean up! – Get out there and start your service project.

Report Back – Recording your volunteer effort is important to receive community service credit.
